“ In 1946 I was born on my father's birthday and returned home to the upstairs apartment we rented above Lois and Joe in their house on Dennison Ave in Columbus. My parents Charlie and Virginia Disbennett and my sister Susan all welcomed me home that day. The next 4 years Lois's voice and laughter made me one happy child I will always remember her voice and the laughter that Lois brought to our home. Lois and Joe then let my family move to the country house they owned on Sunbury Road in Galena, Ohio. We saw them less often then but magic would happen when Lois would arrive for a visit. They were so special to my family I thank them for the opportunities they gave me. Love God-Daughter Denise Disbennett Getchell

“ Aunt Lois had more life at 99 than the rest of us and should be an inspiration to all. I will miss seeing her in my grandmother's kitchen, hair in curlers, slippers on, and a cup of coffee in one hand. --
