

Lois Seddon Major

January 29, 2013

Lois Seddon Major, 87 of Columbus passed away Tuesday, January 29, 2013 at the Forum at Knightsbridge. She was a teacher who retired from Columbus Public Schools. Lois is preceded in death by first husband, John W. "Jack" Reed, Jr.; second husband, John N. "Jack" Major; parents, Charles E. and Mae Seddon; sister, Marjorie Knipe and brother, Charles R. "Dick" Seddon. She is survived by daughter, Susan (David) Williams; grandchildren, Stephanie (Ryan) Brickner and Reed Williams; great-grandsons, James Seddon Brickner and Charlie Thomas Brickner. Lois was a member of North Congregational Church; a graduate of North High School and The Ohio State University; member of North Hi Women and Delta Gamma Sorority. A private memorial service will be held for the family at a later time.

Tribute Wall

“ Lois Seddon Major

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

“ I know California is a much sadder place wiuohttt Jere. He was so committed to his family, his city, the Redwood Empire and California. Jere should be remembered for his contributions to the state through his work with the League of California Cities on behalf of Coastal Cities and his service on the League's Board of Directors. A student of mine at Sac State this past semester asked me who my political heroes were. I told him I didn't really know his question threw me for a loop. I almost blurted out RFK, MLK or someone like that. I never knew them and while they were big picture leaders it felt disingenuous to say that. My real political heroes include Jere Mello- because he was such a man of integrity, belief, incredible energy and a commitment to his family and city. He never preached and he led by example. That is a person who deserves to be a political hero. Thank you Jere for the many laughs and teaching us about what public service truly means.

Lesya - March 04, 2013 at 12:00 AM

FE

“ As we raised the flag yetesrday morning, to open the new Three Rivers Charter School here in Fort Bragg, the students, staff, parents and community supporters were all saddened as we lowered the flag to Half-mast, in honor of our fallen HERO, Jere. Jere was a constant advocate and champion for the youth in our community. Words can't express the sorrow and loss this community has endured because of this senseless act of violence. I sincerely extend my love and prayers to Jere's family, and to our greater community.

Felipe - March 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM

SW

“ So sorry to read of Lois' passing. I am the daughter of Bob and Kay Turner, and granddaughter of Ruth Seddon Turner, so we would be second cousins. I think our moms' played cards together or were in a club together. I recognized Lois' name, and I'm sure I met her many years ago. Sorry for your loss.

Sally Turner Wangler - February 05, 2013 at 12:00 AM

GM

“ I never had the opportunity to get to know Lois well, but she was wonderful to our cousin, Jack Major, in sickness and in health. She also did all she could to help with our Uncle Walter Major in his declining years by preparing nutritious food for him and inviting him to live in her home after he could no longer live on his own. She was a warm, giving person, and a sad loss to her family. My deepest sympathies go out to you.

Glenna Major - February 01, 2013 at 12:00 AM