“ My dear sweet mother in heaven, you have passed away and entered the gates of heaven where you can now rest with our dear Dad, Grandpa, Grandma and Uncle John.

I miss hearing your beautiful voice over the phone, I am going to miss your gentle touch and your sweet hugs, that kept me warm and safe when I needed you most.

Thank you for never giving up on me, and always believing in me when I didn't believe in myself.

I love and miss you so much mom, and I will forever keep you in my heart until we meet again at the gates where angels sing, go to that place where church bells ring, you know I will come running to find you and we will be together again.

Love always and forever your son!

Michael

“ Lori, I have no idea where to begin, so I guess I'll just let it out.. You have been such a remarkable sister who was always there when we needed you.. You took in Shellybell when our father passed and raised her as a daughter.. You have many beautiful women following in your footsteps when it comes to taking care of the sick. I remember the first time I saw you in your nursing uniform at Coney Island hospital I was so very proud of you .. You molded your children to know that anything is possible if you want it bad enough. I'm so grateful for all the phone calls with you and laughing and crying. Lori you have also made me the woman that I am today, you showed me that I could get through everything and anything if I truly want it and here I am today doing the next right thing. I love you and I know we will meet again in Heaven.. I hope you're having a great time up in Heaven. Please continue to visit me in my dreams I know you're watching and I will make you proud. I love you. See you at the Gates Of Heaven

“ You were so much more than a sister, you were my bonus-momma. You helped guide me through all the phases of life no child should from unexpectedly losing mom at such a young age, followed by the passing of dad as a teenager. You stepped in and opened your home to me and welcomed me as one of your own. You have guided me through so many of my life obstacles with poise and grace. You were the bright light we all needed. I'm the mother I am because of you! I'm forever grateful for having you in my life.
I will look for you among the stars.

“ Momma, thank you for being an amazing mother, grandma to Elliot, and mother-in-law to Brian. We will love and miss you forever and always. You live on in our hearts, our love for family and the kindness we bring to the world. We are stronger because of you. Be at peace and give Poppa a hug for us.
