“ Scoonie, so sorry to hear about your Mom. I have many fond memories of being with her back in the days of GMS & DJHS seeing her @ events and working on a few PTO projects. She was always smiling and positive, and made everyone she was with feel good. I recently ran into her up @ El V - and got a chance to say hello and catch up a bit. So happy I had that opportunity. Thinking of you and wishing you all the best during this very difficult time in your life. Pam Austin

“Chris, Alyssa and Kyle, what can I say except how sorry I am for this tragic loss. Lori was always such an amazing person, friend, wife and mother. It seems like just yesterday we were all so young and carefree and to say that the world will be a sadder place without Lori in it is an understatement. She fought this battle hard and really showed me what it was like to live a life of grace and dignity. Chris I'm so sorry for your loss, we will always be here for you...If you need anything know you can call day or night. Alyssa and Kyle I have some really great stories about your mom from way back when in the olden days LOL...She loved all three of you more than anything in this world. Please stay strong and stay focused. Your mother would want nothing but the best for all of you...Live each and every day as a tribute to the wonderful woman she was. I will cherish the friendship I had with Lori for the rest of my life. My heart goes out to all of you...She will watch you all from heaven each and every day...We will all miss her so very much, please remember how much she loved you all and Loved her life and the Lord. If there is anything I can do for any of you please do not hesitate to call. I'm so thankful that God blessed me with Lori as a friend. If I can be half the woman she was then I will be alright. Gabby and I love you all very much and you are all in our thoughts and prayers everyday.

“ Dear Scoonie and Family, When I got the news of your loss I was deeply saddened. I only knew Lori in the soccer world here at Ashland cheering in the stands and through your recruitment Scoonie. She was so proud of you. Through her fight with her illness she showed me what true strength was. Always concerned more about you all than herself when she was battling for her own life. She was an amazing person that always had a smile on her face, even when most would have not. She had a light that shined bright, even on people like me that she knew only a little. She will be missed in the stands at Ashland. I want you to know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all and wish I could offer more than words of comfort through this difficult time. With sympathy, Jon Freeman

“ Scoonie, I was saddened to hear about the passing of your mom. Dr. Hamilton forwarded the information on to me and I wanted to pass along my sympathies and let you know that you and your family will be in my prayers. I read the obituary and it was clear that your mom touched many lives before her passing. I hope that you find comfort in that. God bless you and your family. Dr. Metzger

“ Dear Chris and family, Lori was a true fighter with the kindest heart. She always had a big smile no matter where I met up with her, which always seemed to be Kroger's. Lori would speak of her latest battle with cancer in a matter-of-factly way as if it was just a bump in the road. I was and always will be in awe of her courage and ability to face each day with a great smile and a fantastic attitude. I am blessed to have known such an inspiring person. My sincerest condolences. You are all in my prayers,
