“ I am very late to seeing this sad news. I am of the age where going to a bank, writing checks, knowing your bankers name are not really a thing. For 10 years I drove to the Worthington Branch of Huntington to work with Lorie. I purposely kept paper paychecks so I could have a reason to go to the bank. We talked about family, life, shared photos, etc. She was such a wonderful person to get to know. I know her husbands passing was a tough time for her. I hope they are together now.

“ I am sorry to be seeing this a bit late. Lorie was always a kind and warm presence at the bank, and my late grandmother adored her. She always made us feel very welcome at Huntington. A wonderful person who will be missed.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of the passing of Lori. I worked with her at Sky Bank in Worthington and her & I shared many great stories and laughs. I always loved coming to work with Lori, Betsy, Hannah and Amanda. We all had such a blast. I hope that she passed peacefully and I know she will be dearly missed. Love and hugs from Sean Heery in Fort Myers, FL.
