“ We moved to Foster Street in 1992 and became fast friends with Lorriene. She nursed my brother in our home and he loved her very much. We were fortunate enough to be placed on her sticky bun list which she would deliver hot out of the oven on many a Saturday morning. My wife and I were known to fight over the last one! As stated here and at her service she remembered all birthdays and showed up at our house many times with a basket filled with a complete hot meal from her kitchen to celebrate our birthdays. We loved her and our lives were enriched by her love. She will be missed.

“ Lorriene was more than a dear friend. She was like a family member. Lorriene played the organ for our wedding 25 years ago and was part of our life thereafter. We spent Christmas Eve, family parties and celebrations together. And she made the best cake! No gathering was complete unless Lorriene and her famous Italian Cream Cake were there.

“ Lorriene became a permanent household member of the Staley family in 1956 after re-locating from her home state of Minnesota. As a hospital nurse, she moved to Columbus to help my parents through a long period of therapy following an automobile collision while on vacation in her state. The addition of Lorriene insured the sounds of music was always in the air. Singing by the piano and organ was always a part of friends and family gatherings.

“ My family has many fond memories of Lorraine, she served as the church organist during my entire ministry at Indianola. She was Indianola's Barnabas, as she encouraged a great many people and was a true friend to all. The most memorial thing about Lorraine was that she sent thousands of cards out for birthdays, anniversaries, and every other occasion one could think of, she was the card lady. That was one of many "talents" she brought to the Lord's Table. I will be thrilled to see her again one day. John & Patti Fraizer

“ Lorreine had a special way of brightening the lives of the people that she came into contact with. As a child, she shared with me her passion for praise through music as the youth choir director at Indianola Church of christ. She recognized my talents in singing/acting and put me in lead roles in church musicals. Now (25 years later) as a professional ballroom dancer, I am very grateful for the positive influence she had on me in the performing arts. Ever since then, she never missed sending me a card on my birthday or at Christmas. I saw Lorreine this past Christmas after a dance performance and even after all this time, she recognized me and remembered my name. She still had a vibrance about her that was so endearing and infectious. Thank you Lorreine for coming into my life and for your commitments to Christ and his praise. You will be greatly missed by all of us who were so fortunate to have been touched by your talents, grace, and radiance! - Dwayne Turner

Lorreine and I shared more than the same Birthday, we shared friendship and laughter over the years as we worked together at Interim HealthCare. She was such a devoted nurse and always ready to help anyone in need. I will always remember her smile and the joyous sound of her laugh. Fran Vancalbergh
