“ Kate,
Thank you for loving my Dad. Thank you for being a perfect grandmother to my children. Thank you for coming into my life and always being there, being the mother I didn't think I needed. It's different losing a parent as a child versus an adult. As a child, I never really just talked to my mom and the only phone calls were to ask for a ride. I can't imagine never picking up the phone to say "hellllooo-hoooo" again or sitting at the table trying (and usually failing) to beat you at cards.
Thank you for making my final memory of you a good one, full of love and laughter, in spite of your pain. Don't worry about Dad and the cat, I'll make sure they don't get out of line (I just heard you say "yeah, right!"). And, if you see mom, give her a hug from me.
Love you and miss you,
Teressa
