“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Dear Bowers family, Although not knowing Ms. Bowers or your family personally, I want to offer my condolences for your loss. The pain is tremendous from the death of a loved one. It is my hope that you are strengthened from this experience and use this opportunity to increase appreciation and affection for family. As I examine the obituaries and the various ages of individuals that have passed, it emphasizes to me how short life is and how important it is to take advantage of every day of life. We know soon that our Creator will do away with this wicked foe death (Rev 21:3-4) and allow us to live life as he originally intended. It is my hope that you find comfort in these few words.
