“ My sympathies to the family. Mae was a great woman. I believe anyone who knew her would say she lived a full rich life. She was a neighbor for many years on EN Broadway. I don't remember what year she moved, but I definitely missed her. Occasionally, I would see her at Meijers and we would catch up on life. I'm thankful for the blessing of knowing her. She was gracious and kind, always speaking with a positive attitude-she represented Jesus well. Coincidentaly, one of my Dad's (Charlie Massara) best friends of MANY years was Paul Kern, the brother of one of Mae's daughters husband.
