“ To all my cousins I express my sincere condolences on the passing of your Mom, Maw Maw and great Maw Maw. I know this is a journey of mixed emotions. Aunt Mabel was a special person and I was so privileged to have her in my life. She was a beautiful person in so many ways. I will always be able to hear her giggle and laugh! Hugs to all.

“ I remember falling asleep in your arms Christmas of 2007. We were on the couch, napping. I felt so warm and safe. I was in my early thirties and I somehow knew it would be the last time we would have the opportunity to snuggle together for quite so long. I’m so grateful for that nap. And for so much else...I’ll add some more memories later but just wanted to write this one for now. I love you so much.

“ My memories of Mabel are much like the many others who loved her. Her mere presence lit up a room, but there was no better feeling than when she grabbed and hugged you so tight to say hello. To hear the genuine joy in her laugh as she rocked you back and forth before letting you go is what I will miss the most. She always made me feel so special, and I pray she knew how much my family and I loved and adored her. Heaven has just received the sweetest angel.

“ To Judy, Bev, Bruce and Steve
You undoubtedly have the best mom, grandma, and great grandma anyone could ask for. I could share a book of memories but what means the most is that my family truly considered Mabel ours too because of the love and precious memories we have. Mabel treated my children like her own grandkids, making every visit a memory for 40 years. I will always cherish all of the wonderful times we laughed and strolled around New Smyrna when Judy and I would visit. Mabel’s pure heart, her smile and laughter will always be a part of my heart. The world has lost our Mabel but heaven has gained one special angel.

I just smiled because it makes sense in regards to Mabel. Her laugh and smile were so infectious, I have adored everything about this fabulous sharp incredible sweet beautiful woman since I was a young child. You were so loved by so many Mabel. In my spiritual world, you are now dressed to the nine wearing the best shoes dancing to the best music. XO my sweet Mabel.
