

Madhu Pranlal Parekh

November 8, 1939 - July 11, 2023

Madhu Pranlal Parekh, 83, peacefully passed away July 11th, 2023.

Madhu was deeply loved by his family and friends. His dedication to his family was first and foremost in everything he did. He loved making people laugh with his well thought out jokes and silly humor for every age. He loved good conversation, music, travel, and of course James Bond movies. We will always remember his sweet and sometimes mischievous smile, quick wit, funny jokes, and his wonderful and loving hugs.

Madhu was born to Pranlal and Acharatben Parekh in Gujarat, India. He married Uma Jani on January 1, 1967, in Maharashtra, India. Madhu left India at the age of eighteen to study abroad and earned his Bachelors and Master's Degree in Aachen, Germany where he became a Metallurgical Engineer. He then moved to Canada to start his career and his family. Twelve years later they moved to Troy, Ohio. Over the years, his dedication to his community with his leadership in the India Club of Dayton and Umang brought him the joy of many lasting friendships.

He is survived by his loving wife, Uma, and daughters, Seema (Russell), and Sandhya (Jatin) and grandchildren Nayan, Sajan, Milan and Marisa.

“ Uncle will be so missed. I remember one time, when I was in jr high I think and Sunny just entered high school, I was at your house in Lima. Auntie was not happy about something that Sandhya had done or said and they were both feeling upset about it. After an hour or so, Uncle quietly knocked on Sandhya’s room door, came in and sat on her bed beside her. Then from behind his back handed her a box of her all-time favorite chocolates (turtles) and she lit up! Uncle put is finger in front of his lips and said “shhh...I know you’re upset about what going on between you and your Mom, but don’t worry about it. It’s going to be fine just remember how much she loves you. Now hide these under your bed...they are just for you.” Then he hugged her tight and left. That was a such a simple but memorable example of how much he loved his girls and his family.
