

Manmohan K. Sachdeva

September 22, 1946 - January 21, 2026

With profound sadness, we share the passing of Mohan K. Sachdeva, a deeply loved husband, father, grandfather, and guiding presence, who passed away on Wednesday, January 21, 2026.

At the center of Mohan's life was his beloved wife, Neelam, his partner in every sense. Their life together was built on devotion, respect, and quiet strength. He was a constant source of love and reassurance to her, and their bond was one that grounded their entire family.

Mohan was a devoted father to his children, Ruchee and Bob, whom he loved fiercely and supported unconditionally. He took immense pride in the people they became and the lives they built. To his daughter-in-law, Mandi, he was not just family by marriage, but by heart—offering warmth, acceptance, and kindness that made her feel truly cherished.

His greatest joy in recent years was being Nana to his three grandchildren, IV, Sascha, and Gavin. They brought light and laughter into his life, and he delighted in watching them grow, always eager to encourage them, cheer them on, and share moments both big and small. His love for them was gentle, playful, and deeply felt.

Mohan was known for his kindness, humility, and steady presence. He had a way of making people feel seen and supported, often without needing many words. To many, he was a father figure, a mentor, and a trusted confidant, someone whose wisdom and calm reassurance left a lasting impression.

Throughout his life, Mohan faced significant health challenges with remarkable courage and grace, including a rare cancer and heart disease. An article was written about battle, which can be read at (my.clevelandclinic.org/patient-stories/575-complex-surgery-saves-man-with-rare-cancer-and-heart-disease). Even in the most difficult moments, he remained resilient, appreciative, and focused on his family. His strength was not loud or performative, it was quiet, dignified, and deeply inspiring.

Mohan leaves behind a legacy of love, perseverance, and compassion. While his passing leaves an irreplaceable void, his spirit lives on in the family he adored, the values he instilled, and the countless lives he touched simply by being who he was.

He will be deeply missed and forever remembered by everyone he touched.

The family is deeply grateful for the outpouring of love, prayers, and support during this difficult time.

May his soul rest in peace.

“ I had known Mohan for last more than 40 years. He was a co-worker and a good friend. After retirement, we occasionally met for lunch and had joyful time together. He was a great human being who was always ready to help. My heartfelt condolences extend to his family members. May God bless his soul. Rest in peace, my friend. We will surely miss you!

“ Mohan and I shared more than 30 years of friend and colleague times, and he will be so fondly remembered and sorely missed. He liked to call me Chief, but always feeling his generosity and integrity I had to think of a more honored nick name for him, so he became Colonel to me. We shared hard work and play, blood, sweat and tears. I added a photo of the two of us watching The Memorial Tournament behind the 18th green from AEP's pavilion. One of the really good times together. Fairways and Greens Colonel. DB
