“ Hello....I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and share a hope promised in the Bible. “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life.” (John 5:28, 29) With the loss of your loved one I hope you can make a little time to study the Bible for yourself. I hope that seeing the promise for yourself, and making this resurrection hope your very own, can give you some genuine comfort during this difficult time. Thank you for reading my message.

“ Mary,so sorry for the loss of your mother. If there is anything else we can do, please let us know. Your mother was so gracious to let Rachael stay with her when Abigail was in the hospital. What a blessing she was. We love you..Bob and Kym

“ Dear Cahill Family, Although not knowing Ms. Cahill or your family personally, my heart goes out to you during your time of loss. Ms. Cahill was blessed to have such a loving family structure. I am certain that she was a loving and caring person. I too lost someone very dear to me years ago, my mother, so I can relate to the grief that you are experiencing. The Bible makes the promise at Isaiah 26:19: “Your dead ones will live. . . . They will rise up.” And the Bible at Psalms 37:29 also says: “The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.” You can have confidence in the resurrection (Acts 24:15). By drawing close to God in prayer the Bible promises that “he himself will sustain you.”— Psalm 55:22. It is my hope that you will find comfort from these few words during this difficult period.

“ We were all saddened at this unexpected loss of a wonderful saint on earth, but saints do their best work in heaven, where a new life begins. We are unable to attend the memorial, but be assured that we are with you in thought and spirit and remembrance. With deepest condolences we wish you peace.
