“ Dear Cindy, we all share in your loss because of our love for you. From my experience, the loss of a mother is heart rendering, but the sweet memories linger on for the rest of ones life. My prayer is that God will give you peace at this time and continue to bless you as you minister to others in so many wonderful ways. We love you Cindy...Sam

“ Cindy, I shall not forget your mother who shared the same birth date as I and who always remembered that day with kindness toward me. Seventy two times, your mom beheld the changing seasons and, perhaps like the poet Mary Oliver, she was married to amazement taking the world into her arms and embracing all that came her way. I will remember her with fondness. With sincere sympathy for your loss.
