

Margaret Dronsfield

October 29, 1930 - August 6, 2024

Margaret Anna (George) Dronsfield

Born October 29, 1930 in Ennis, Texas.

Died August 6, 2024 at the age of 93.

After graduating high school, she went to nursing school and graduated as an RN in Louisiana.

She met her husband Charles W. Dronsfield Jr., while he was stationed in Louisiana with the Air Force. They were married at her mother's home. Shortly thereafter, they moved to Columbus, OH, where she practiced nursing and Charles worked for Ohio Bell. Her final job was with Willow Brook Christian Home as Director of Nursing. They had five children, Janet, Cathy, Scott, Andy and Todd.

Once retired, she spent much of her time outside, gardening and taking care of her flowers. She was very active in the church. Her life was spent loving her Creator and Savior Jesus Christ. She lived by His examples, constantly growing in His wisdom and love. Her heart was open to all, loving and caring for so many. She is survived by three of her children: Janet (Judge) Conniff, Andy (Regina) Dronsfield, Todd (Theresa) Dronsfield, twelve grandchildren and twenty great grandchildren, two of her sisters: Bobby (Doug) Dreggors, Helen Hall and her brother Robert George. Margaret was preceded in death by her loving husband Charles, her daughter Cathy and her son-in-law Bill Damron, her son Michael Scott and her sister Annette Salvo. Viewing is 4-6 pm with service to follow on Friday, August 16, 2024 at Alum Creek Church

6256 South Old State Rd. Lewis Center, OH 43035.

“ To Janet/Andy/Todd;

Your mom and dad were the best neighbors ever and were always so kind to me and my brother and sisters. My memories could fill a book. I am so very sorry for your loss.
