“ I would like to extend my sympathies, Tom. I know you spent a great deal of time with your mother and that you will miss her. It is interesting to look at your own many and varied talents and to see that your mother was one of few female college graduates of her generation. Her own diversity of interests stands out in her Obituary. I am glad for you and your family to have had her in your lives and pray for comfort for all of you in these days. Regards, Beth
