

Margaret Kaminski

January 9, 1933 - July 8, 2021

Margaret Kaminski (88), nee Thomas, died peacefully in her sleep on July 8th, at her residence in Dublin, Ohio. Born in Cleveland to Clyde and Rosemary Thomas (both deceased) on January 9, 1933, Margaret attended The Beaumont School for Girls then earned her BS at St. John's College. She was an expert knitter and talented singer. Like her parents and brother Clyde (now deceased), Margaret was known for her sly wit and good humor.

Margaret enjoyed a blissful, four-decade marriage to her beloved husband Vince; they resided in Avon Lake, Ohio until his death in 2000. They had four children: Margaret, Jennifer, Vincent, and Elizabeth (Betsy), and one grandchild, Zane.

She will long be remembered for her sweetness, humor, love of music and life, her many, many stories and anecdotes, and mostly for her kind, smiling eyes. May her memory be a blessing to all who knew her.

“ Margaret was our next door neighbor for 20 years. She always had a smile and friendly wave. We loved hearing her many stories and life adventures. She was a ray of sunshine and will certainly be missed.

We love you as neighbors, and simply as you. Thank you both.
