“ I am so so sorry for your loss. I just got the email from David and I was stunned at the news. I will go back and find the obituary. Paul be careful and take it slow and easy. This is a loss that I know is huge but God will take good care of her. She will be in heaven taking care of you and waiting faithfully for the one love of her life God Bless you and your Family. “ Dear Paul, Dennis, Janet, and David, My prayers are with you as you recall all that Marie was to you and those who had the good fortune to know her as friend or community member. I did not have the privilege of knowing her so well as all of you, but I have a fond memory of the few times I did get a chance to visit her as well as the time I went to the wedding back some 60 years ago. I have lighted two candles at the St. Jude altar in memory of Marie and for you, Paul, when I visited St. Patrick's Cathedral this morning. May she rest in peace. Tim

“ My sincere condolences to Marie's precious family: to Paul, and to their children whom I probably spent time with when we were all very young back in Cleveland, including daughter Jan whom I've come to know online, and niece Susan whom I've come to know online as well. I know Marie prayed for me diagnosis of diabetes in 1956, and I so much have appreciated that faithful prayer support. You all remain in my prayers.
