“ Dear Stephanie and Danielle, I don't know if you "remember the 70s", but I actually started piano lessons BEFORE then with your mother! She provided me with a safe haven and allowed me the joy of playing the grand piano upstairs...and expressing what I felt so much within. I remember her dog Shane would sneak in and keep me company too...and how she made the arrangements for Dave Wheeler to give me lessons. What warm feelings come over me when I think of my time with her: joie de vivre is a good summary of your mother! May you (and your brother too) each find your way to reconcile your grief as you celebrate that ample legacy that she left for you! I think she'd smile to know that music is STILL very much an integral part of my life! Blessings on you and yours! Rosemary (Holtsberry) Barboza

“ Mrs. Stimmel was a wonderful, vibrant, and expressive individual. It was so great to get to know her through so many years of piano lessons. We pray she's now enjoying time with Bud and Paul Newman. :) Fondly, The Brehm Family

“ We have lost a great sense of humor, a wonderful wit, and a very caring lady. The lives she has touched is uncountable. The world is a very sad place today because we have lost one of the stars that has been one of the brightest in the Heavens was taken from us. She will be missed by many, but the memory of her will last forever.
