“ Mark and Jodi were our neighbors back in 1985. Mark was always a kind and helpful neighbor. We have known Mark and the family for 32 years. It was hard seeing Mark have to go through all this. May he rest peacefully now and be without pain. You are deeply missed by us. RIP Mark...Mark and Pat Miller

“ I had the privilege to know Mark from before the time either of us could walk or talk. We spent a fair amount of time together through elementary school and into junior high school. Unfortunately, we then each went off with different sets of friends, but I always considered him a friend. Even though we haven't seen each other in nearly 30 years, I will miss him. My prayers are and will continue to be with you all.
