“ I will never be able to understand why drug addicts, murderers, rapists etc get to continue to walk around the earth and yet a descent, kind, wonderful person like Mark Miller has been called to heaven. Mark had the rare gift of being able to light up any room he entered. He absolutely lived for his boys Ian and Aiden... I hope they and Mina are able to find the strength to pick themselves up after this tragedy and keep going as Mark would have wanted. I'm sure there are many people who knew him better than I, but I can tell you that he will be sorely missed. We are all better for having known Mark Miller. Rest in peace my friend!

“ Mark and I have spent many a unique afternoon together. We played golf and enjoyed each others company for years. One afternoon we were sitting in a bar that I can not remember the name of when he asked me if I knew a rather large pregnant woman with two kids? I said yes well he said she is here and is truly Pissed Off. Knowing I had no where to run I took the children with great Joy. (She is now my Ex Wife)

We always joked about that day. I will miss my dear friend Rest in Peace and hold a place at the bar for me

Love

“ It is with such deep profound sadness that I am on this site to pay tribute to Mark Miller, a best friend and near brother as one could be. Mark and I met back in 1991 at a sales training class in Dallas (shared our first scotch together that very first night of meeting), and have been the best of friends for 25 years since.

There are too many wonderful memories to reflect upon from those years, but fortunately we were able to connect one last time late last year in Hilton Head as we gathered together so many times across the U.S.

It goes beyond words how much you will be missed Mark. I know in whatever great beyond you currently reside in now, you will truly make it a better place!

The best of memories shared...
