“ To The Ahmed Family: These last couple of months, I have spent with Marsha have meant so much to me. We got to laugh, form friendships with others and most of all, forget about the cancer. Marsha was such a strong and courageous lady. Her children were her pride. She never got tired of talking about them or her grandchildren. Please take heart in knowing that He has taken her home and she is out of pain. She is with your Dad now. May you have peace in knowing that Mom had will be watching over you and helping you through this emotional time. The Meadows Family

“ Dear Tarah, I was so sorry to read of your lost. I lost my husband, Fred, in August of pancreatic cancer. He was only 58 also. I am not sure if you remember me. We worked together at Cols Arthritis Center. I am still there. I always thought you were one of the nicest people I had ever met. Take care knowing your mom is not in pain anymore and she is with your dad.
