“ Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal. Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands. . . We live by faith, not by sight. We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. 2 Corinthians 4:16-15:8 King James Version I remember Ken as that gentle - man who always insisted on walking me to the door at the end of each of Ruthies visits. Even when his declining health made that a hardship to do. I will remember Ruth as my friend, in the purest sense of the word. Never asking anything in return and always giving, giving from her beautiful bountiful heart. She is a beautiful spirit angel lady now. How sweet, how lovely, how pure, how powerful is the soul of Ruth Ann Hampton. She lives on eternally. And now she stands in the perfect place, with Ken and Jesus, to watch as God unfolds the many, many blessings He has in store for Linda and Leonardo for their labor of love. I hear the angels whispering, prophetic words of things to come for you Linda. The Lord loves you and smiles down upon you. Oh my, I see, I hear and thank you Jesus. Linda, your Mom will be there with you in spirit and honey, God is telling me, she won't miss out on a thing. Thank you Linda, from my heart, for the years of labor and love you gave your mom. Pick your head up and walk on, as your blessed Mom and Dad taught you to do, in the Holy name of Jesus. I look forward to hearing from you in the years to come with each and every new success and blessing. Ruthie, my friend, I'll remember you often. And when I do it will be with a smile and a tear. I love you. Thank you, once again, for being my friend.
