“ Dear Family, I, like so many others, cannot begin to tell you what a wonderful person your mom was. She lived her life as God wants each of us to. I know that when she stood at Heaven's gate, He truly welcomed her with open arms and gave her the much deserved rewards that He promised. You are very blessed to have had such a wonderful Christian as a mother and grandmother. Thank you for sharing her with us. God Bless and comfort you at this time. Linda, (Secretary at Indianola for several years.)

“ Marty will be greatly missed in our lives. She left us many wonderful memories. My memories of her and the family go back over 50 years. I was blessed to know Stan and Grandma Vorgang as I grow up in the church, they were such wonderful Christian friends. Marty & I shared many enjoyable conversations by phone or in our letters. She was an example to all of what a good and faithful Christian should be. I loved that about her so very much. We pray for comfort and peace for Mike and Tim Tomesek and their families.
