“ Jinny, I am sorry that I was out of town and wasn't able to send my thoughts of sympathy to you sooner. I will certainly miss Mary Lou and I know she had a wonderful life and touched so many during her teaching career. I know she was a very special person because she was such a dog lover and that to me is very special! Thanks for sharing her with us at Emerald Crossings.

“ I graduated from WHS in 1971 and thru the years there were only 2 teachers I remembered with fondness and the knowledge they made a difference in my attitude towards life. One of those 2 was Miss Bach. Loved her gym class, loved her attitude and knowledge of sports. Mostly though, loved the way she could handle all us crazy kids. She will be missed.

“ Jenny, I was a student of Ms. Bach from 1961-65. We all called her "Sam" and cherished our time with a trusted adult who "got" us. I will always remember her caring spirit and sense of humor. I fondly remember playing field hockey for her -- we were early in the inter-scholastic sports for girls. I remember how crushed she was and we were when the admin. told us we couldn't call her SAM anymore and were not allowed to hangout in her office. Now as a teacher myself, I am sure some frightened parent probably complained. But I appreciate her being there for me as an adolescent. She was the best. Love and condolences to you, Jenny.

“ Condolences to all the family and friends of Mary Lou. I was so lucky to be a student of hers and then later a colleague when I taught at WHS. I'll never forget her noble efforts to teach me to ski...but alas, I ended out "flunking that course." Mary Lou's positive attitude, sense of humor, and commitment to students are qualities difficult to match, let alone exceed. She will always be a treasure for those of us who knew her.

“ When I moved to Columbus, I was looking for things to make the city home. I was still very new to the area and Capriccio when I saw Mary Lou and Jenny at rehearsal. I did not get to speak to Mary Lou - but I loved the way she listened. Week after week, she sat in her wheelchair listening. I did not get to speak to Mary Lou - but I am very grateful with what she shared just by being there. Week after week, she sat in her wheelchair listening. I still didn't know names, but I knew that the two ladies on the end of the row were close, and the cheerful lady with the macbook was incredibly attentive to her friend, while still reading her music. I began to suspect she wasn't really a soprano... ? I did not get to speak to Mary Lou - but she spoke to me. Week after week, she sat in her wheelchair listening. She very quietly showed me I was somewhere special, and with very special people. It was probably one of the wisest and best things anyone ever told me. Love you, Jenny XOXO
