Born June 11, 1927, Mary married the love of her life, Herbert E. Caldwell, Sr. on August 8, 1945, who sadly preceded her in death. Also, the following preceded her in death: her precious mother, Viola E. Price and loving father, Charles H. Price; greatly missed both brother, Ralph C. Price and sister, Beatrice M. Loretta. While wife and mother to her family, Mary still found time to work at Big Bear in Upper Arlington, F & R Lazarus Co. in Downtown Columbus, and Riverside Methodist Hospital Columbus. Most importantly, everywhere Mary lived, she never missed an opportunity to make a friend or offer a helping hand. Mary lived a full and wonderful life and left this earth with grace and hope in her new home in Heaven. The family wishes to thank the many friends, staff, nurses and aids who cared and prayed for Mary Caldwell during her four years at Ashford on Broad (Whitehall) Independent and Assistant Living.

“ I just heard the news about Mary. I am so very sorry for your loss. My mother is also a resident at the Ashford and I knew Mary from my visits. My mother has dementia so she didn't always remember, but Mary would always wheel up to me & my mom and tell me how much she liked my mom. Mary was always very welcoming and pleasant and was such a joy to see. I pray for comfort and peace for your family. With deepest sympathy,
Tracey Pursell (my mother is Sharon Pursell)

“ It was such a joy caring for Mary! The way she would light up when I would come by to care for her made my day. She is already missed by so many.

Thank you Teresa for all that you did in caring for our mom. She certainly enjoyed your visits with her. We are so grateful for you and all the other Capital City Hospital staff who helped with their great support and understanding. Don't know how we could have gotten through her final days without you all.
Sincerely, The Caldwell Family.
