“ I'm having a hard time accepting that Mary is gone from us. She was such a good friend and neighbor. She had an energy and enthusiasm for life, a great sense of humor, and a directness I appreciated as a fellow "Northerner." I will miss Mary, but I will imagine her happy in heaven with her Shelley and father, Charlie, too.

I only new Mary briefly because she came over from the York Risk location to the main Headquarters of CareWorks both in Dublin. She was a great lady and will be missed greatly in our Accounting Department at CareWorks. My thoughts and prayers are with her friends, family and coworkers. RIP Mary Gold

“ Your beautiful mother will be missed by everyone at Hampton Reserve. I feel so fortunate to have met her and become friends, when I moved here 3 years ago. Our group of women "The Hampton Hotties" enjoyed our "dates" for movies and dinner. She was so looking forward to her little grandson's birth. My deepest sympathy to you all.
