“ Dear Steve and family, I am not sure you would remember meeting me, but your Mother's room was directly across the hall from my Father's (Leo Mitchell) at the Sanctuary. They also sat at the same table in the dining room for their meals. My father passed away in 2010. We both thought the world of your mother. She always had a smile and was so kind and cheerful. I loved talking with her when I would go to visit my father. I was sad to see the notice in the Columbus Dispatch of her passing. I am very sorry for your loss.
