

Mary Janet Haney

June 21, 1933 - September 23, 2022

Mary Janet (Burkhardt) Haney, age 89 of Columbus, Ohio passed away September 23, 2022. She was born June 21, 1933 in Woodsfield, Ohio the daughter of the late Francis G. and Dorthea (Ackerman) Burkhardt.

She is also predeceased in death by her beloved son, John Christopher Haney, grandsons, Ryan Andrew Hansen and Jon Hansen, and former husband John Haney. She is survived by her five daughters Karen A. Glass of Cleveland, OH; Patricia L. Caruso of Monroe, GA; Susan M. Protheroes of Falls Church, VA; Joan E. Haney of Knoxville, TN and Nancy E. Holloran of Bonita Springs, FL; brothers Charles Burkhardt (Sandy), of Pataskala, John David Burkhardt of Clermont, FL., special sister-in-law Nancy Burkhardt of Williamsburg, VA, special cousin Marie Ring and 10 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren, many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Janet has a special bond with cousin Marie Ring. As Marie once said, "we have always felt like sisters. We both came up on the same milk." Janet's mother Dorthea and Janet's Aunt Thelma Weber were both pregnant at the same time. Thelma's baby, Marie, was born without complications, but Janet was premature, weighing only two pounds and born in a farm house in Woodsfield. Because of the premature birth, Dorthea had no breast milk so her sister Thelma provided the life-saving milk. Janet's father Francis fed her with an eye dropper for many weeks until she grew and was able to take regular milk. Janet loved to sit on her patio at her home in Clintonville having coffee with neighbors and friends before she moved to the Villas at St. Therese. Later she moved to Mother Angeline McCrory Manor. There she enjoyed the loving attention of the nuns, nurses and aids, many of them having cared for her mother Dorthea 15 years before. Special thanks to the nurses and aids from Mother Angeline and Mt. Carmel Hospice.

Service to be held at the Mother Angeline McCrory Manor Chapel, 5199 E. Broad St., Columbus, Ohio at 10 A.M., Friday, September 30, 2022. Visitation one half hour before service. Burial at Resurrection Cemetery.
