“ Our sincere condolences to the Hood Family. Mary Jane had the patience of a saint because her home was always filled with the neighborhood kids.

Thanks,

The Stattmiller Family (some of those neighborhood kids)

“ Mrs. Hood was a wonderful member and steward of our school and church family. She served the parish selflessly for many, many years with an unassuming and humble presence. I especially appreciated her attending to the luncheon for my mother's funeral mass. She will long be remembered and missed. Thoughts and prayers to Mrs. Hood's children and extended family.

Also want to pass along these messages from fellow friends:

Angela (Carrell) Mitchell: So sorry to hear this - at least she was at home. (I know that's what my Mom wanted.) If you talk to any of the family please send my prayers on to them.

Bruce Wilcox: My condolences to all of the Hood's, especially Patrick.

Bobbie (Young) Danberry: My prayers are with the family at this difficult time. R.I.P. Mrs. Hood.
