“ Mary Ann McCoy

“ I am so sorry to learn of Mary Ann's passing. We worked together years ago at the doctor's office. I always enjoyed Mary Ann's humor and good spirit. She was so conscientious in her work. Thinking about those days brings back good memories and warm feelings. I wish we hadn't lost contact, but I guess we so often have that regret in life. My sincere sympathy to everyone in her family for your loss.

“ Nana will be remembered best for all the fun times we had playing games at the table and so many stories she told during that time. Although we're sad she's gone, we know she's at peace now because she's finally back with Rocky, her true love.

God will provide peace, comfort and strength to those still here.

This poem fits her well:

You can shed tears that she is gone
or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she's gone or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back or you can do what she'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

We love you Nana. Until we see you again. ~ Sue & Mo Jo Jo Joe McCoy.
