

Mary Jane Schiavone

December 27, 2014

Mary Jane Schiavone, age 84, died Saturday, December 27, 2014 at First Community Village Healthcare in Columbus, Ohio. Mary Jane was born in Ellwood City, Pennsylvania and previously resided in Weirton, WV, Cortland, OH and Charlotte NC. She was preceded in death by her parents Anthony and Nicolta Cola, her husband of 51 years Ben Schiavone, her brother John Cola and brother in law Dante Schiavone. She is survived by her daughter, Sandra (Randy) Miller, son James (Tanya) Schiavone, Granddaughters Lisa (Nathan) Hoening and Teri Miller, Great-granddaughters Carmen and Emma Hoening, sister-in-law Jean Cola, sisters-in-law Mary Lou (James) Bonaventura, Norma (John) Horvath, and Lena Schiavone, and many wonderful nieces and nephews. Mary Jane lived in Columbus since 2008 and she and her daughter were the recipients of many acts of kindness and support. Our deepest thanks go to Dr. Paul Leidheiser, Jr. for his truly compassionate care. We are also grateful to William K. Root, Sue Wall and the staff at The Forum at Knightsbridge Assisted Living and Rehabilitation Center, the staff of First Community Village Healthcare, and the nurses from National Church Residences Hospice. We are also grateful to Monsignor Joseph Hendricks of St. Brigid of Kildare Catholic Church for providing the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick and to the staff of Rutherford Funeral Home, Powell, Ohio. There will be no services or calling hours; she will be interred with her husband at a later date at Salisbury National Cemetery in Salisbury, North Carolina. “ Mary Jane was a distant relative of mine and I was her maid of honor when they were married many years ago. We knew Ben and Dante Schiavone from Weirton, WV. Our thoughts and prayers are with Mary Jane and her family. Ann Endry (Sundale) 5314 Slater Ridge, Westerville, 43082. My e-mail is ann@endry.net. I would like to hear from her family. Thank you.

“ I've known Aunt Jane, felt her love, and enjoyed her cooked food and baked goods for over 60 years now. I have shared laughter and tears with her. These last few years have been her toughest but she fought the battle to the end. May her soul rest in peace.
