“ I was in Mary Ann's "walking club" at Ohio State. I also enjoyed lunches with her and our co-workers. I liked being with Mary Ann. She could be funny sometimes and sometimes very profound. She was one of the nicest people I ever knew. Some of my best memories of working was listening to Mary Ann and Vanja talking together, their words were music to my ears, so sweet and kind.

“ Please let me express my deepest condolences to Mary Ann’s family.
Mary Ann was a very special lady. She was thoughtful, kind and compassionate. Mary Ann loved cats (especially her little Fleur), the outdoors, arts, but most of all she loved her family.
We have been friends for many years, and I am blessed that Mary Ann was my dearest friend.
I have lots of wonderful memories of her. She will be missed very much.
