“ My first memory of Mary was in the 1950's when our family was invited to the Priday home for pizza. That was the first pizza we had ever eaten. I still remember how delicious it was. In 1953, Mary (Priday) and my mother Mary (Conklin) won the prize for the most authentic dress in the 1953 Centennial Celebration in Hilliard. Great memories. Our prayers are with you, Georgia and Jim. May God bless you with His Love and Peace.

Love, Doug and Connie (Conklin) Weakley
