“ The Wallace Family has long been a big part of the Ditore Family. From pool parties in Lima Ohio, to Santa Monica CA and on to San Diego. A huge part of that was always Mary Ann. Her laughter and smile warmed all who met her. We had so many fun times. One of Lisa's best memories would have to be showing up at Mary Ann's at 10 PM and having 50 pounds of food out in 20 minutes. Love those meatballs! We all know she is in a better place, and reunited with Ted but it will take a lot for us to get over being without her.

“ Mary Ann will be missed....she touched so many lives and one is mine. She was my godmother and when I got married in 1982 it was in California and she made it to the wedding. That meant so much to me that she came all that distance. I also remember many fun times with the Wallace family when I was young. As an adult I was not able to see her quite as often but we did have a memorable trip in DC with Debbie, Mary Ann, my mom Betty and I! Much love to the family.
