“ Mary Wiles was the Mother of my best friend since kindergarten, so I have known her for over 70 years. She was the consummate “Mom” who had an amazing eye for interior design, could whip up beautiful outfits from her sewing machine with seemingly no effort at all, bake mouth-watering shortbread and serve up a mac and cheese to die for. I remember her breaking into song while vacuuming the living room – often “You Are My Sunshine” – and she had a subtle, but mischievous sense of humor. I loved being at the Wiles house for its serenity and cheer – and because my best friend lived there. Great memories.
