

Mathew Herban

February 15, 2013

HERBAN Mathew Herban III, PhD, age 74 of Worthington, OH (formerly of Annapolis, MD), died unexpectedly Friday, February 15, 2013 at his home. Emeritus Professor of Art History at The Ohio State University. Survived by wife Tricia; son Joe (Angela); granddaughters Hailey Christine and Kylie Livingston Herban, all of Worthington, OH; sister Noret (Richard) Dovel of Virginia Beach, VA; Nephews Michael (Dawn), Jeffrey and Stephen Dovel. 1956 graduate of Washington Lee H.S., Arlington, VA; B.A. from American University; M.A. from Boston University; PhD from University of Pennsylvania. Mat enjoyed teaching above all else and was widely recognized for the enthusiasm and knowledge he conveyed. His crayon and paper art were an important part of his life. An accomplished cook and enthusiastic gardener, Mat loved travel and he loved his Westies. A Memorial Service will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Friday, March 1, 2013 at St. John's Episcopal Church, 700 High St., Worthington, OH 43085. Family will receive friends at the church following the service. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to: The Billy Ireland Cartoon Library & Museum, Schultz Library & Museum Fund, The Ohio State University Foundation, 1480 West Lane Ave., Columbus, OH 43221; Chamber Music Columbus, P.O. Box 14445, Columbus, OH 43214; or St. John's Episcopal Church. Arrangements by RUTHERFORD-CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 515 High St., Worthington, OH. Condolences to family may be sent to www.rutherfordfuneralhome.com.

“ I was quit saddened to hear of Dr. Herban's passing. I took many classes with him and he served on my Ph.D. committee. He was a kind and patient mentor. I greatly admired the depth of his art history knowledge and him sensitive observations about art. Please take care in knowing that part of him will also live on in the knowledge he passed down to his students, who are now passing it along to their students.
