“ Our condolences go out to the entire Williams family on Max's recent passing. He was an inspiration in many ways to many folks, and I will never forget his comfort and counsel years ago when a good friend of ours died unexpectedly. And what a dynamic preacher. We will certainly keep the family in our prayers.

“ Pastor Max married my husband and I just last year. I was very sad when I heard of the news of his passing. I am very sorry for the family's loss. Pastor Max was a great guy. I will always remember him as a very caring person and always trying to make everyone feel welcome at church! I only knew him for a short time, but from that time I could tell he was very active within the community and loved everyone around him. We will miss you Pastor Max, but we will see you again one day.

“ To all who knew and loved Max, I offer my deepest sympathy. Like some who have posted here, I shared growing up years with Max in our home town of Eaton Rapids, in school and in church. I was so pleased to know he'd become a minister, and fortunate to spend an overnight in his home in Ohio when my daughter and I were visiting small colleges in the area. It was wonderful to reconnect then, and we are all still connected now, thanks to our individual and shared memories. May God's blessings be abundant in this time of remembering Max and his family.

“ I lived across the street from the Williams family and have such good memories. He was a wonderful man. So kind hearted, funny, good natured. I did get a chance to talk to him at Annette's funeral. He will be missed by so many.

“ Max was more than just a close friend and classmate to myself and others both in Eaton Rapids and at Central Michigan University; Max was part of our "external family." And to those who didn't know him, Max was always there to listen and offer a kind word. We shared classes throughout school, sang together in Church Choir (children's & Senior Chancel), and were roommates at CMU for one year. Listening to music, especially The Beatles and Simon & Garfunkel. Our sympathies & prayers go out to Max's Family.

“Max will be missed by many, I graduated with Max as well as played sports with him. Even though he was a larger man by stature than most of us what really was noticed about Max was the size of his kindness and wonderful nature. I don't recall ever seeing Max with a frown, always smiling and that is what I remember mostly about Max. I have not seen or even spoken with Max since leaving high school and yet with his passing I feel the loss.

“Dear Zach & Sam: I didn't know your dad, but he must have been a really great man to have been blessed with two such wonderful sons! I lost my dad to lung cancer about 8 years ago. He wasn't a perfect man, but I loved him as much as any daughter has ever loved her father. The loss of a parent leaves behind a pain and a sadness that never truly goes away, but I can promise you this, as time passes, that pain will be replaced by happy memories. You will remember all the good times, all the funny times, all the private and special times you had with your dad. I know your dad was proud of you both and that he will be looking down on you as you live the lives that you were created to live and he will continue to be proud. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love & Blessings. Loree Scott

“ Max always seemed "bigger-than-life." He was always surrounded by an atmosphere of kindness and nurturing awareness. His memory lives in the world as our own active compassion for the struggle of others, and his immortal soul continues to nurtures us from beyond. Thanks, Max!

“ I received an eamil from Max about a year ago and it stimulated many fond memories of our time at ERHS. Sorry for his family and friends and their loss.

“ I would like to offer my condolences to Max's sons, friend and ex-wife, his sisters and Dad. Max and I were good friends in high school, having spent many hours in student council, home room and many classes together through out our high school years. I was sorry to miss him at Annette's funeral, as I could only attend the visitation. My prayers continue for your family and for Max. May he rest in the loving arms of our Lord.

“ Max will be forever remembered by my husband and I of one of inspiration and realism. Max officiated our marriage in 1994 and both my baptism as an adult and my children. My husband and I frequently say that there will never be another minister that will touch as Max did. He had a gift of moving people of all ages and with such humor! He could make you laugh and bring you tears. I will never be able to listen to certain songs without thinking " I wish I could hear Max sing that" What a voice. As a Hospice nurse, I only hope that Max got the great care he deserved towards the end of his life. I know he has great care now. Thanks Max for touching our lives and I wish his son's peace in knowing how many lives their father has touched that probably Max did not even know about.

“ I graduated from Eaton Rapids in 1969, its been over 40 years since I have seen Max. But I still remember him, he was the type of guy, once you knew him, you would never forget him. His obituary showed he accomplished a lot in his life. He was one of the GREAT Eaton Rapids boys. God Bless, John Hayhoe

“ Nancy and John are sending our deepest sympathy for your sorrow and loss of a very special person. I had known Max since he was little, as well as his family and a special friend of Barb. Max was always full of life and love, with such a giving heart. We are so sorry for the pain you are experiencing. Sending lots of prayers and special affection to each of you - Nancy and John (plus John and his family were very close neighbors in Eaton Rapids)

“ Max and I grew up and graduated together, sharing many experiences, from little league baseball, paper routes, church youth group, high school choir, (singing next to each other)and small ensemble, high school plays (playing father & son in one)and reliable confidant. In 1973, Max served as my best man. It is beyond imaginable to be writing in his memorial book at this time! To Zach & Sam & Lou, to Max Sr, Jayne & Barb, and to our mutual friends, my very deepest sympathy!
