“ Dear Kathy (Lisk) Stewart I spent a lot of time at your house when we were growing up. Your Mom always made me feel welcome and wanted. I think Maxine was born to be a Mother and she was very good at it. She was the coolest Mom I knew. I always wondered what happened to her and all of you kids. I would have loved to pay my respects today but the weather is stopping me. Love, Alice “ Nearly three years ago, Max and I became neighbors and friends when we both moved to the Worthington. I enjoyed getting to know her, and really appreciated her sense of humor. Max was a caring and giving woman; we'll always be reminded of her by the gift she gave to the Worthington when we play bingo in the activity room. I can still hear her calling me, saying "the coffee is brewing, come have a cup!" It was a joy to learn about and meet her family, as well--she loved them all. Max coped very bravely with her illness. Now, she is at peace...may you rest in peace, my friend. You will be missed, but you are in God's loving arms now.

“ You are in our prayers. May the Lord comfort you in your sorrow and may you find great comfort in the blessed assurance that "to be absent from the body is to be present with Christ" and that you will see your mother again.
