“ Dear Ann, Maureen, Bernadette, Patrick as well as all of the McGeown children & grandchildren,
I was so shocked to see the notice of Merv's death in today's newspaper. I considered him one of my best friends through grade school, high school and beyond. We did not see much of each other after he left Lockport. Such a shame. My last memory of talking with him was at the 50th anniversary high school reunion.
Ann, I hope that we can meet some day.
