“ Dear Jennifer, Thomas and Mallory,
So sad to hear about Mike. He was much too young and vital to leave us so soon!!

We have such happy memories of your wonderful family from when we lived in Dublin. Since your kids were a little older than ours, we always took notice of how well you guys parented.. and set healthy boundaries with a dash of sarcasm.

Mike was so much fun to be around as he always displayed his great sense of humor. We loved our time golfing with you both at Tartan and remember lots of events with you both. Bill didn't even mind if Mike beat him as long as he shared a cigar with him.

Mike was an incredible person of great integrity, kindness and faith. We know he will be sorely missed until you meet him again in eternity.

Jennifer, you are a strong woman of faith and we are praying that the sting of losing him will be softened by so many happy memories. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Jennifer, Tom and Mallory,

My thoughts and Prayers are with you at this very sad time of loss. When I think about Mike I think about 2 Timothy 4:7 Mike fought the good fight, he finished the race and he remained Faithful and now he is in The Kingdom with the Lord. What an incredibility good and kind man that loved his family. He will be missed.

May God bless you with great memories until you see him again, peace be with you.

“ Jennifer,

Melody and I are saddened by Mike's passing. But we know that you and your family have the faith and love to know that he is safe in the hands of The Lord. He no longer bears the burden of the cancer that took him so early.

*All who knew Mike will miss his smiling face and his quick witted sense of humor. He's probably already looked up Woody Hayes to sit with him at the next ichigan game.

We pray that God gives you and Mike's entire family the strength and resolve to keep his memory in your hearts forever.

Sincerely,

Tom & Melody Steuer

Love, Mini Me and Miss Marla - January 12, 2016 at 04:34 PM

“ Dear Jennifer, Mallory, Thomas, Alexandra, and all family,

To us Mike will long be remembered as a man with a joy for life and laugh that made everyone laugh along with him! We are forever grateful and will never forget the love he gave to Alexandra and to the rest of us. He was a generous, kind man, a caring father, loving husband, the funnest "Pop", and a great friend with the best taste in wine, and we are better having known him. We will never forget how the boys would light up when he came into the room, how much he laughed with them, or the funny faces he made in the mirror with Luca copying his every expression! They loved their Pop and they will miss him dearly, as will we. Plain and simply put, Mike was just flat-out fun to be with and we loved him.

I pray for peace over each of you and comfort knowing when the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, death has no victory. [1Cor 15:54-55]

Those of us left behind are torn by the loss that follows the blessing of having loved and been loved.

We love all of you, we share in your grief, and pray for solace as you look forward to the day of being reunited with him! Until then, we know he is safe at home and that heaven is an even happier place since his arrival.

All our love,

The Price Family
