

Michael W. Sikora

April 30, 2012

SIKORA Michael W. Sikora, 85, died on April 30, 2012. Preceded in death by his wife Eleanor. Survived by his three sons, Stephen W. Sikora (Mary Lou), David F. Sikora (Janet), and Michael P. Sikora (Leslie); and 11 grandchildren, Joshua, Molly, Zack, Michael, Lindsay, Brooke, Brad, Katie, Paige, Hope, and Ann. Mike was a likeable natural salesman who started up several successful businesses in Columbus. Raised in Hammond, Indiana and attending college at both Indiana University and the University of Oregon, he was captain of his college football team and went on to play Pro Ball for the Chicago Cardinals. He had a great continuing interest in athletics. The funeral will be held at 11:30 a.m. on Saturday May 12 at the RUTHERFORD-CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 515 High Street, Worthington, Ohio 43085, where family will receive friends 10:30-11:30 a.m. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to a favorite charity of Mike's - the Humane Society, the Salvation Army, Smile Train, Faith Mission, Special Olympics, Children's Hospital, or Doctors Without Borders

Tribute Wall

“ Michael W. Sikora

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM

“ Kevin: After watching you eat all these years, know for sure that you would eat anything that doesn't crawl off your plate. Seems like Ken is having the harder time since he is even pickier than me. He picks beans out of chili but now will eat something that looks like it died on his plate and is decomposing. Yuck! lost 31 pounds last July simply because the hospital food was SOOOOO bad I could not force it down, no way, it was realllly bad. Have gained about 8 pounds back but eat what I like now just not as much, and shoveling snow helps. But, whatever works. Just seems like it's highly repititious and what are Lentils? He will get tired of the same ol same ol and give it up. Look like some kind of beans to me but the boy is scuffing them right up. I shudder to think what he would have done with brussel sprouts when he was MUCH younger. Obviously none of the 4H stuff has mayonaise on it.

Rigoberto - June 10, 2012 at 12:00 AM