“ Dear Fay and Family, Annette and I are so sorry to learn of Michael's death. We wish with all our might that we could express the exact words that would offer some comfort in this time of grief and sorrow, but that is impossible. Please know and accept that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. In Sorrow and with Love, Annette and John

“ Dear Faye, You and your entire family have my sympathy over the loss of Mike. I, as you all, loved the guy and will miss him dearly. We had many conversations lately and his compassion and understanding were so helpful to me. I am so sorry to have had to convey to you both the diagnosis that cost him so heavily. Faye, he talked about you so lovingly and tenderly. I know you will miss him deeply. My thoughts and prayers are will you and the family. Tom
