

Michealeen Weatherby

March 14, 1947 - October 3, 2018

Michealeen Weatherby, age 71, died Wednesday October 3, 2018 at The James Cancer Hospital. She was born in Saint Louis, Missouri to the late William and Norma (Hecker) Higgins on March 14, 1947. She is preceded in death by her sister Patricia (Joe) Maricic; aunt Eunice (Dan) O'Connor, uncle Oris (Kathryn) Hecker, and aunt Clara Vollmer. She is survived by her husband Tom, daughters Kelly (Tom) Kersey and Amanda (Ryan) Nichols; grandchildren Carter, Finley, Nash, and Pepper; nieces and nephews Norma (Don) Napoli, Mary Ellen (Greg) Frushour, Barbie (Bill) Eshenroder, Elaine (Keith) Brown, Chris (Kim) Maricic, and Bill (Michelle) Maricic; great-nieces and nephews Kristy (Dennis) Bruins, Laura (John) Prior, Donna (Rouz) Jazayeri, Jennifer (William) Bean, Greg (Ashley) Frushour, Allison and Lauren Brown, Kiersten (Matt) Brenner, Kelsey (Chris) Watson, and Kara Maricic; 8 great-great-nieces and nephews; cousin Janice Vollmer and brother-in-law Terry (Marybeth) Weatherby.

She took pride in being the matriarch of her family. She was an amazing quilter, loved to cook, kept a beautiful garden full of flowers of all kinds, and had a special bond with her beloved Scottish Terriers. She loved to spend time with her grandchildren, particularly sharing pictures with her oldest granddaughter and movie dates with her oldest grandson. She was so loved by her family and her personality attracted friendship from everywhere she went. She was truly one of a kind.

“ Michealeen was my first friend when we moved into St. Anthony's parish. I was 10 years old and scared going to a new school. She opened her heart to me and we became very good friends. When Michealeen accepted you as a friend you were a lifer. She was my forever friend. Everyone should be so lucky as I have been to have someone like her in their life. We would sometimes not see each other for a longtime but it did not matter, when we saw each other again it was like we never skipped a beat. My wish is that everyone who reads this is lucky enough as I have been to have a friend like Michealeen. There will forever be a whole in my heart from this point forward. My heart bleeds heavily for Tom, Kelly & Amanda and the whole family. God Bless “ Mrs. Weatherby was feisty, witty, and passionate. She was also an amazing cook and often fed and cared for those visiting her daughters. She will be greatly missed!
