“ Millie was such a special part of the Wesley Glen family. Always a kind word to share and a smile! She will be missed! Wonderful that she was able to be a part of the Centenarian Celebration!

“Millie was so dear to so many people. She and her husband Mike helped start the Serbian church in Columbus and worked so hard to keep it going. I'll always remember the "key" stunt at my wedding reception - the DJ asked my husband to join him at the podium, then asked all the women who had keys to my husband's house to come forward to return the keys now that he was married. The DJ had given keys to probably 20-25 women guests, suddenly all these women stood up and walked up to the podium to "return her key". It was really funny and my husband Graham loved it - especially when Millie - who was in her mid 80's at the time - was the last woman to return her key. They shared a laugh and a big hug. She was beloved by everyone who knew her, and will be missed. Vechnaya pamyat.
