“ I remember Irene from Pine Tree Lodge on Pigeon Lake near Peterborough Ontario in the early 1960s. I was there with my parents (John and Bobbie Clarry) and my 4 brothers (John, Jim, Paul and Gordon). Irene and John were accompanied by Jim, Jerry and Jack. I I recall one of their boys served in Viet Nam (John Jr?). My mom and dad visited John and Irene in Ohio. I remember Irene and John visiting my parents' home in Toronto, Ontario, Canada around 1967-1968. They parked their RV in our driveway. What a remarkable, amazing and long life she had. Sending virtual hugs. Sincerely, Deanna Clarry-Lawrie (deanna.clarry@yahoo.ca)

“ We love and miss you Aunt Irene. Your memory will live on forever in our hearts. You were the wittiest person we have and ever will know. Til we meet again...

(Hear a little video of a poem she wrote in the 3rd or 4th grade, what an incredible memory!)
