“ Myron was a great cousin who I always enjoyed talking with. He would have plenty of stories to tell and laughter to share. We had many good times playing games at family gatherings as well. I knew him as a very honorable man who's heart was deeply rooted in his family. He would do whatever he could to help those close to him and with his knowledge and skills that was pretty limitless. What a tremendous loss for his family and all that knew him. His passing was much too soon. I'm deeply sorry that I couldn't be there for a final farewell. However my memories will continue on and my heart goes out to his immediate family.

“ I remember Myron as always presenting himself with confidence and a smile on his face. Also very passionate and opinionated. A smart man. In his later years, I witnessed his great devotion to his family. I wish I could have been more involved in his life. Rest In Peace my cousin.
