“ My Mom was a devoted, loving wife, mother, and friend. She had a long, hard battle with kidney disease, but she never complained. She was small, but mighty. She was not only a wonderful mother, but she was my best friend. I will miss her dearly, but she's with my Dad and John now, and I will see her again some day.

“ Karen and Curt I'm so sorry that Nancy is gone. She was a special friend of mine and of Dave's also. When I think of the past, Nancy and Don are always in my thoughts especially the way we laughed together. I remember visiting them with Dave at their first apartment and how small it was. From there, without any help, they both worked hard to make a wonderful life for themselves and for their children. She dearly loved her children and grandchildren. Nancy was a real lady and always welcomed us to her home from Sorin to Clarksville. I will miss her. Debbie, Linda, David and Mike also send their condolences.
