“ *Mimi,
Seeing your mom's picture in the paper brought back memories of seeing her in the kitchen when I would stop by to pick you up on our way to grade school! It seemed to me like she was always making pancakes and your kitchen smelled deliciously like syrup. I also remember her laugh and that she was forever driving your brothers to and from swim practice in that big old (blue, was it?) station wagon. Your mom was a patient and kind soul, which was beyond my comprehension at the time, with a house so full of mostly boys! I share in your celebration of her life and sadness in her passing. She definitely made an impression on me.*

*Warmly,
Joyce (Gessing) Donnellon*
