“ My childhood summers included going to Columbus clipper’s baseball games with Nate & my dad every Sunday after swimming in the pool at the house. He was always a joy to be around even as I grew older he never changed. Always a light & a joy! You will be so missed!!

“ This makes me so very sad. I loved working with him for a lot of years. He was so very nice and kind and sweet and did not talk much. But he would help you at work however he could. You will be missed. I am so very sorry for the family for their loss and my prayers are going out to you and the family and a big hug. God bless you all.

“ I have a lot of great memories with Nate. Most of the revolved around football and tailgating. He was an avid Steelers fan, but I never held that against him, just like he never held being a Bengals fan against me. We both agreed on Ohio State, though. Nate was an all-round great guy! I will definitely miss him.
